To Whom It May Concern:

It is with much enthusiasm that I recommend Jasmine Frink for employment with your organization.

I was Jasmine's co-worker at WACH FOX for 5 years. Jasmine and I worked in tandem on many of our station's largest projects and broadcasts.

Her organizational and research skills are truly phenomenal – from compiling detailed ratings numbers to creating targeted and specific sponsorships and tracking their execution, often with many events overlapping. She was always cheerful and willing to assist with any task. In addition, Jasmine was motivated and interested in learning. To this end, she often accompanied our broadcast crew to not just help us plan, but also take part in the actual production of many of our broadcasts.

Put simply, Jasmine has a very special spark, and I know she will go far in making our world a better place.

Please let me know if I can provide any more information to strengthen her candidacy for the position for which she has applied.

Sincerely,
